

Cable Jointing & Installation

THE EXPERTS

Wootton & Wootton have been providing cable services on a nationwide basis for over several decades. We pride ourselves on refinement within our works, boasting exceptional quality and impeccability on every assignment. Our teams of highly skilled Craftsmen possess the proficiency and aptitude to execute an array of tasks comprising of a broad range of different services.

Up to 200kV Testing
with the HVA200

OUR SERVICES INCLUDE

- Jointing and terminating from LV up to and including 170kV on all types of cables and insulation mediums
- Extensive range of testing services covering all cable systems including up to 200kV DC and AC VLF
- De-Oiling of redundant fluid filled cable networks from cables to all ancillary equipment
- Cable system excavation and all aspects of installation including cable management
- Substation installation including plinths, transformers, switchgear and earthing

We have teams of highly skilled craftsmen, authorised for multiple REC/DNO's, executing a broad range of different services within the transmission and distribution arena. We are situated on the Shropshire Cheshire border, with easy access to the M1, M6 and M62.